

GREAT ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS: ORGANISE YOURSELF TO SUCCESS!

★ COURSE OVERVIEW

Great Organisational Skills are without question one of the most important business skills needed. It is often at the top of the list of requirements when it comes to recruiting administrative support staff, and the applicant is invariably convinced that they possess these skills in abundance. However, in reality, the complexity of on-the-job demands and instructions coming from all directions, can often stretch even the most confident person, and that is why BizTech is presenting "Great Organisational Skills: Organise yourself to success!" to provide the essential practical skills to ensure absolute organisation despite any chaos that may exist.

The course covers the following topics:

PREPERATION: CLEARING YOUR MIND (AND YOUR DESK!)

- Identifying and getting rid of clutter
- Fully understanding your manager's expectations
- Map out your own accountabilities, with links to everyone you depend on, and everyone who depends on you
- What are the obstacles to getting organised?

PLANNING POWER: GETTING PROACTIVE!

- Proactive planning for any eventuality
- Effective 'To-Do' lists and making them work
- Managing deadlines: scheduling, tracking and reminders
- Designing checklists to circumvent any mishaps
- Developing systems and processes to cover all the bases
- Focusing on objectives for maximum delivery
- Use project management techniques to handle sections of work
- Keeping your management informed and in the loop

IMPLEMENTATION: MAKING IT HAPPEN!

- Effective filing systems: never lose anything important again
- Top tips for the most efficient electronic filing
- Maximising the use of your Outlook diary: it's not only for meetings!
- Methodology for paying attention to detail
- No 'slip-up' follow up steps
- Managing your most important non-renewable resource: Time
- Ways to measure your success: steps to continuous improvement
